JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY
Jönköping University Enterprise

Terms and conditions for the Jönköping University Enterprise/Pathway Programmes Scholarship

Applicable from academic year 2027/2028

1. Information about the scholarship

1.1 About the Jönköping University Enterprise scholarship

The Jönköping University Enterprise scholarship (hereinafter referred to as "the scholarship") aims to support students in the pursuit of their academic studies by providing financial aid towards tuition for the duration of their programme. The scholarship is offered on the basis of academic merit and is intended for students who are required to pay tuition fees for Pathway Year English or Pathway Year General Programme.

1.2 Scholarship amount

The amount awarded is equivalent to 20% of the tuition fee for the programme the student has been admitted to.

The scholarship will accumulate and be deducted from the following semester's fee. This means that 40% of the tuition fee will be deducted at the second semester.

1.3 Application criteria

Students must fulfill the following criteria to be eligible for the scholarship:

- be a citizen of a country which is required to pay tuition fees in Sweden. Note: students do not need to reside in their country of citizenship at the time of submitting the application
- be required to pay tuition fees for studies at Jönköping University
- have applied to a Pathway Year Programme offered on-site at Jönköping University and Campus Gränna by the scholarship application deadline
- have paid their programme fee
- have submitted a complete scholarship application including personal statement letter and recommendation letter(s) before 15th May
- Have applied for and being eligible for a follow up programme (i.e. a Bachelor or Master).

Students who have applied to a programme but have not yet received an offer to the programme are encouraged to submit a scholarship application.

1.4 Scholarship selection

- to be part of the selection process the student must have been offered a place to a Pathway Year Programme at Jönköping University Enterprise
- the student's personal statement and recommendation letter(s)
- successful applicants will be notified approximately around 15th June

- broad geographical spread and good gender balance are taken into account for the decision
- the student must confirm acceptance of the offer and the terms and conditions by the deadline indicated on the letter of offer
- the scholarship offer will be revoked if the student does not confirm acceptance by the deadline
- the sum of the scholarship will be deducted from the invoice of the second tuition fee
- in cases where the first instalment of the tuition fee has been paid prior to notification of receiving a scholarship, the equivalent amount of the granted scholarship will be deducted on the second invoice
- the scholarship will be revoked if the student's residence permit for studies in Sweden has been rejected.

1.5 Duration of the scholarship

The scholarship is awarded for the duration of the student's study programme for a maximum of one year. The scholarship cannot be extended.

2. Terms and Conditions

The scholarship holder (hereinafter referred as "the student") is obliged to the following terms and conditions when accepting the scholarship.

2.1 Arrival to Sweden

The student should arrive in Gränna in time for the start of their study programme. In the case of late arrival, the student may keep the scholarship if their arrival to Gränna is within the period accepted for late arrivals, established by Jönköping University Enterprise.

2.2 Studies at Jönköping University Enterprise

The student is obliged to study full-time at Jönköping University Enterprise, the Pathway programmes (30 credits per semester).

2.2.1 Deferment

Students who have accepted and confirmed a place in a study programme but have no possibility to start may apply for deferment of studies according to Jönköping University's deferment policy.

If the student's application for deferment is approved, the student can keep the scholarship for the first semester once the studies start but needs to reapply for the scholarship during the next application period. There is no guarantee that the scholarship will be awarded again.

2.2.2 Refund

If an application for a refund of a student's tuition fee is approved, only the amount of the tuition fee that the student has paid will be refunded. The scholarship is a deduction of the tuition fee and will not be added to the refund.

2.2.3 Academic performance

The student must pass the whole semester. Students who do not meet this requirement will not receive a scholarship for the remainder of their studies and will be obliged to pay full tuition for any subsequent semesters. If a payment has already been made with the scholarship deducted, the student will be obliged to refund the equivalent of the deducted scholarship amount.

2.2.4 Study break

Students may only keep the scholarship if they return to their studies within a one-year period following an approved study break.

In cases of unapproved study breaks students may not retain the scholarship.

2.2.5 Change of programme

Students may apply for a change of programme within a Pathway Year Programme and may keep the scholarship if the programme is within the same school as their original programme and if the programme is of the same duration.

2.3 Payment of tuition fees

The scholarship only covers part of the tuition fee. The student must pay the remaining tuition fee by the payment deadline.

2.4 Change of residence permit in Sweden

If there is a change in the student's residence status, the student must inform Jönköping University immediately. The scholarship will be revoked if the student is granted a residence permit for anything other than studies.

The terms and conditions of the scholarship may be subject to change.
